DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lev et al. (6,043,633).

Lev et al. disclose a power factor correction method and apparatus in Figs. 14 and 15. Boost converter includes input voltage (Vin), boost inductor (10), boost switch (200), diode (12), driver (200) whose input comes from the power factor correction pulse width modulator (100) via a control line (214), filter capacitor (202 and 206), zero current detector includes capacitor (20), diode (22), and diode (24), and zero current discriminator (130).

3. Claims 45-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Seong (5,757,635).

Seong discloses a power factor correction circuit and circuit therefor having sense-FET and boost converter control circuit in Fig. 3. Boost converter (100) includes input voltage (Vi), boost inductor (Lf), boost switch (110), diode (D2), driver (800) whose input comes from the power factor correction pulse width modulator (100) via a control line (214), filter capacitor (202 and 206), current detector (600), and controller (500).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 6/12/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant does not have support for defining "dynamic change" as a transition between two modes among all three modes continuous mode, critical mode and discontinuous mode within one operational cycle. If Applicant adds the limitation "transition between two modes among all three modes continuous mode, critical mode and discontinuous mode within one operational cycle" would overcome the cited prior art.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
